About GuGabriel

Project GuGabriel

Gudrun Liemberger alias GuGabriel is a famous Austrian singer-songwriter.

She started her solo career in 2010 – before that she was leader of the band “SheSays”. The name GuGabriel is made up from her two first names: Gudrun and Gabriele.

Her album "Anima(l)" was released in 2011 and marked a first success in her career as a solo singer.

After a break GuGabriel celebrated her comeback in July 2012. She also started a cooperation with Opel Austria and became the new brand ambassador which lasted until the end of 2014.

„Salvation“ – the successful comeback-hit

With her comeback-single „Salvation“, which was released in summer 2012, GuGabriel celebrated a fulminant comeback and was represented for more than three months in the Austrian Top 40 charts. She has also reached the impressive number of more than 600,000 clicks on YouTube until today. In South Tyrol the single was number 1 in the charts.

GuGabriel about her song: "For me the song Salvation means the start of a journey, a journey to love, light and truth. Just today, in a world full of new challenges it is important to believe that we can reach common and individual happiness – and to trust in ourselves that we are able to guide our lives back on the right way. My song has the aim to encourage all people to do so."

„Adam & Eve“ and „Breaking Through“

Her second single „Adam & Eve“ came out in December 2012 and was played on the biggest radiostation in Austria, Ö3 as well as the single „Breaking Through" which was released in April 2014.

„What About Us“

“What About Us” is about the importance of sustainable thinking nowadays. Gudrun supports this cause and tries her best to involve her thoughts about this subject in her work as in her own life.

The music video was shot in the countryside of the northern part of Lower Austria and at a special place that is called “Arche Noah” which is a community that preserves crop diversity and heirloom varieties for a livable future.

„A Little Bit Of Love“

“A Little Bit Of Love” was released in December 2016 and received airplay at radio Ö3. It looks at relationship(s) from an individual and universal point of view. Gudrun made three very authentic videos showing the situation of people getting together...

The musical beginnings until the breakthrough with "SheSays"

Gudrun Liemberger was born in Freistadt, Austria. She grew up in Weitra, a village in Lower Austria. At home she always played music with her two sisters and was taught in vocals, guitar, violin, piano and flute.

After several years of working in the family business and staying in England and the USA afterwards, she moved to Vienna at the age of 22 and completed her musical education at the University of Music and Performing Arts with an excellent certificate.

This was followed by an international theatre workshop in Berlin / Wannsee Forum and by film and theatre acting studies in Vienna. She participated in a number of festival films and was member of different bands.

With her band SheSays the entry into the music business was sealed. In 2006 they received the „Amadeus Austrian Music Award“ and reached position 2 in the Austrian Singles Charts with their single "Rose Gardens".
